India Johnson

President and Chief Executive Officer

American Arbitration Association-International Centre for Dispute Resolution

India Johnson is President and CEO of the AAA-ICDR. Her role encompasses operations and strategic initiatives for the organization. Ms. Johnson is the first woman to serve as CEO of the AAA-ICDR.

Prior to becoming CEO in January 2013, Ms. Johnson mediated a number of AAA arbitration cases and other cases to settlement, and served on volunteer arbitrator panels for non-binding arbitrations of small-claims cases administered by other organizations. Her many years of experience facilitating arbitrations include working with thousands of lawyers on large commercial cases involving up to several billion dollars, numerous individual parties and the resolution of complex procedural issues.

Ms. Johnson has participated in numerous initiatives supporting alternative dispute resolution. She has assisted various state legislatures, courts, and other organizations in exploring and implementing dispute resolution programs. She frequently presents to business executives, advocates and neutrals regarding arbitration and mediation, and has authored many articles for both legal and business audiences.

She is also a member of the Board of Directors of the American Arbitration Association. Ms. Johnson is a member of the Board of Trustees of the Bahrain Chamber for Dispute Resolution (BCDR-AAA), the AAA-ICDR Council, the International Federation of Commercial Arbitration Institutions (IFCAI), ArbitralWomen and the Foundation for International Arbitration Advocacy. She is also a member of the AAA-ICDR's Board of Directors.

Ms. Johnson earned her B.A. from the University of Miami and an M.B.A. from Georgia State University.
